

A LOVING OPTION... ...ADOPTION

"Due to my situation, I think it would be in the best interest of the baby to be raised by two parents."
Age 18

"I chose adoption because I want what is best for this child."
Age 17

"It is in his best interest. It is a non-selfish decision. I love him so much I want to give him a better life. I want him to be successful."
Age 17

"I know that there are many people out there who really want a child and in the long run would be able to care for him better than I would be able to at this point. I want to give someone else the gift of life."
Age 17

"I am not ready to be a parent. I don't think I would be able to provide the best care for her."
Age 17

"I chose adoption because I feel the adoptive parents would be able to give my daughter a better life than I can afford to give her at this point and time in my life."
Age 19

"I want this child to have a stable home and two parents who are married."
Age 18

"She needs an adult to parent her. She cannot wait for me to grow up."
Age 16

"I chose Open Adoption so I could see my daughter grow."
Age 17
